

Fifth day. First Month. Eighty-seven-gazillionth year. But since we live in the modern era we'll just call it 2010.

First meeting ever in the year 2010.

Start time 7 ish, finished by 1130.

That's right. First of the quarter, first of the year, first of the decade. The decade.

Before we began there was a loooooooooong conversation about our agenda.

Followed by an adults-only all-nude hand signals revue. It was sassy.

Chickens are not chickens. One word, one action.

Oddly, words escape me.

It went something like this: jwpoacalifor;owipm,disturb;ali;mq;lifuck;ofqpllma!!!!

(Everyone was present, btw. Including the newbs! Everyone say hey to Eve and Mr. Dick Burton III!)

DISCO!

Paul's friend is coming. Rosalie's mom is coming. John's son is coming. There is room enough for everyone. Everyone is coming. So we're all going to have to sleep together.

PROPS!

Meeting time change: doodle poll coming your way to determine the next quarter's meeting time. In the meantime we'll meet next Sunday at 7, with dinner called at 630.

Permanent facilitator: In the past we've had a rotating facilitator but there's a general sense that things run more smoothly with the same person doing it all the time...then we won't have to be all, "Oh, this is the funny meeting, or the interrupty meeting, or the emo meeting" (Scrogger). If this is a pointed, elected position the facilitator might should be accountable for something. What thing? Email the agenda. Organize the agenda. Learn things about facilitation. Read proxies. Ooh, ooh! Let's have an under-pinch-study-hitter! WTF is that? A person who can act as facilitator in the event that the facilitator has a proposal or agenda item. Passes with 1.5 Stand Asides

Guffalufagus 2x3pt positions: You know guff. You love guff and guff loves you. Accountability might be an issue...how do you know a person is making all the things all the time? Could there be a guff list? Yeah! Guff staples? Yeah! Guff training? Heck yeah! We have mad house cooking skills! And mad recipes! Position Passes.

But...elected? Or not? Whoa...this is a tough one. Some ideas that are floating around are 1 elected, 1 non-elected "pinchunderhitstudier" position. Passes.

JOBZZZZZZZZ!

(Wherein I give up my secretary position. What?! Don't worry kids, for a good time you can still find me on the bathroom walls in all three houses. Yeah, I get around. ...What!)

So what's up?

Facilitator. Secretary. Membership. GUFF!!!

Facilitation:

Safia: doesn't have strong opinions...in a good way. Willing and wanting(!) to learn more about how Consensus and facilitation work Hitter! Studier!

El Dub: wants to be more active in the process. Has a good handle on consensus and reading non-verbal cues in the room. Willing and able to be objective, to be flexible, to streamline the ideas in the room.

Erica: Has a super good time-keeper watch. And good peripheral vision. And positive body language toward us

Rosalie: Has done lots of non-coop facilitation. Likes the group dynamic, non-hierarchical communication. And she will point-of-process yo' ass.

Pincher! Underer!

(BTW look for an archival/historian position coming soon to a coop near you.)

Sack-ratary; doin this shit

Eve: she'll try hard. And she has a computer. And she's quite listeny. So she'll take notes like this with her fingers.

Miles: Has long wizardy fingers and like typing with them. Shoots off quips and quibbles quite quibbly-ly.

Mary: Former experience suggests that she is apparently rather funny. Future experience may suggest the same.

And then I entrusted my computer to Eve. Yay Eve!

This is the voice of EVE...

Membership vote: Clare has left us, we must choose a new Clare.

Ashley: teeah for cleeah

Ro gets the position, she is in charge of the future of the coops, she's in charge of my replacement.

Guffalupogus.

Paul gets Guff position, extravagant dip to follow.

Meeting week 3, MIA C Jonathan, Safia, David, and joining us later Erica
Pinch Facilitator: ROSALIE! Pinching us under

Check in; what would you have liked to be told pre move in to Coop's?

Ashley; hug junkies live here (I think Ashley needs more HUGS)

Richard; Richard still loves us.

Mary; Got told it all, would have liked to know about floor being done and crack (in roof) denness of Janet.

Zoe; glad of ignorance, learned them in time

Luke; needs to be surprised!

Eve; First meeting warning

Jon; is no longer surprised, would have liked to know the psychedelics

Jeoff; you are on Track choosing Janet.

Rosalie; Asked a question she has no answer to, move out date of those leaving.

Wei; Structure and content of meetings

Paul; didn't know he would be friends with all of us, Tempe consummation amount, fear of Tempe, then love of Tempe...

Miles; despite being second to last is at a loss, expected the unexpected

Erica; is a heart barfer, trusts us thus we must steal her milk and lick her cheese. To take things slow...

Richard; Loves the food! Loves the left overs...they're so good and exciting and full of taste sensations (also loves napping)

Proposals

6 and 67 raising taxes...this is supported by signature outside of the house: money designated to be out into education U of O and health and human services.

PASS

Window blinds for the guest bedroom, Venetian Blinds are EVIL to clean! Tabled

$40 for new rags... rags seem to have disappeared, there where lots, not there are few. We Have Fewer Rags. We are using too many rags, and too frequently, the rags should be for wiping not for Washing, Viva La Ragsistance. Efficiency of Washing and conscious use of sponges? Floor to be wiped with previous used Rags, be ware of bloody Rags, perhaps at a 10 for 5 dollar apiece bags. Rags for 40 dollars or less, we're hoping for plentiful rags!

Eco Advisor

Dew's not here so lets postpone until next week.

TABLED we CONSENT to vote on it next week!

C enters the room.

House Archivist: 2-point jobs

Jonathan is excited at archiving us; he wants to do more creative projects like a zine.

C declines but offers to help, we get a reaction from C, it's amazing, but we have to get on so after the hysteria we get back to business. C then sparkle fingers until his hat flies off. Mary was in a sorority; we love it, its funny. A look book is not going to happen. Ashley's pro digital, she wants digital. So, there will be a mid term check in for accountability, a physical thing and an online thing.
IT PASSES! Jeoff and Zoe are new archivists.

Kitchen sink needs to be fixed.

We need to enable Luke to fix our house! $170. We live in a leaky house. The roof is a 1600 bid for corporate, the grout for the kitchen shouldn't be too expensive and the basement leek is to be continued. This could go to corporate, the sink is not necessary but needs replacing, it's a waste of water due to a broken pipe its not doing immediate damage. Luke is going industrial with Curtis.
This is TABLED until next week.

Announcements: Fun with fermentation, WOW hall, 5 dollars, with canned goods, 12
Save Boxes and stuff for the Robot Party.
Free trial to come soon of the Register Guard.

Meeting Week 4

Awesome Check in Question: Nose noises?

Safia: Beginning of the lion king song, possibly the circle of life.

Daniel (guest):

Richard: Here I am to save the day (sung aloud as mighty mouse)

Paul: Sheah?

Dr D: I belong to you now, take care of me.

Miles: Arooga or aha aha.

C: 'Very niice'

Eve: Tumbleweed

Wei: Enjoys the kitchen cleaning, and thinks Jonathan is a wonderful cook

Erica: her nose and ears connect to make a 'Waaaaah' sound

Angela (guest of Mary): I'm covered in bees

Mary: meet (in honour of granny) slacked on her jobs!

Reading Space Info shop.

There's a little room waiting to be turned into a warm space to turn into a community space for the locals and the free school. Possibility for a check off feature. Individual support is high, but as a coop promise this does not come off well. The experience for the community would be a not for profit bookstore, a lending library, a zine archive is already available, a free photocopier and a spot to hang out in town, read and socialize, the email contains a lot of info! Decided to vote on a 50 one-time gift from discretionary, with an option to personal donation and charity ish thing...

And the 50 dollars...Passes! CONSENSUS!

Book Healthy Bread in 5 minutes A DAY!

28 dollars from Down To Earth from discretionary funds.

This book is full of delicious bread but...could it be gotten from the library or ordered?

It's a good book and delicious, we would all eat it, we eat a lot of bread.

Buying it from a local bookstore, and getting it soon for DELICIOUS BREAD

CONSENSUS!

Curtains Vs Blinds.

Blinds are more efficient energy wise and light keeping outing.

TABLED

Discussion

Westco! Its cool! There is a large group of people interested in this and we're excited about fundraisers to get the money. It's the 2 to 5th of April, which is Friday to Monday. So many Cars, so many coopers! 7 people ish!

Tastes of The Janet Smith

House recipes so leavers leave something behind. ON the Internet is the Taste Book!

There's a JS account on the Wiki we can buy it! Yaaaaaaaay! Hippyfood on tap!

Late Plate etiquette. 24 hours until you can devour a late plate! Unless un marked, extra is OK. It's a rule NOW! And it's a dishes persons job to put lids on and date a name plates.

JS Safari.

Should we let people study us? Can we converse with this person, can we trust her? I think so. We are not allowed to fuck with her as she needs to get some grades. We descend into debating whether to fuck with her...for the greater good. She's coming for dinner hopefully. She's coming to eroticise and objectify us (mainly A +)

We must now repeat 'the greater good' whenever it is said in meetings.

We will not discuss the Tom Kat as it stands.

We can eat AROUNDN the gluten in cake and that is how we should live our lives!

House meeting Week 8

Feeling the crunch of week 8, try contractions a/o abbrev. Much faster!

First, we made zen. Then. . .

How would you take over the world as a supervillain?

Miles -- ll'be a supercomputer programmer man-child to create the matrix w/o you
EVEN knowing it. comp.. have an AI manage 4 him, until it takes over.

David -- Illuminati via Scottish rite

Paul -- d'SPAM the world!

Jeff -- d'rewrite a history book or two.

Luke -- wouldn't let ppl know he's doing it, thr/intelligent hierarchies

Ashley -- Two mice (one w/a brain, one pink). Laugh + see what happens.

Jonathan -- Instill a culture that insists on faith w/o evidence.

Wei-Yi -- Peacefully convince everyone to follow him.

Zoe -- Ride a super-unicorn to distract all.

Rosalie -- be a short E.M. Flux cartoon, spry and tight clothed.

Richard -- wouldn't take over the world.

Eve -- ll'get ppl 2 lay down to roll over them and go where she wants

C -- Leggings and Ug boots 4 all!

Safia -- Mesmerization thr/music aka be a Bollywood Siren

Mary -- Self-bomb (nukular)

Proposal. Sunday dinner at 7! Passed consensed.

Blinds Jonathans room: he's being spied on, he needs to stop being spied on! Simple roller blinds. Reason not to use an already owned piece of equipment? David offers a donation. Blinds 15 bucks Passes CONSENSUS.

Brunch n' games: not this weekend but the weekend after, other people in the nest? People over on the Sunday of stress week? March 7th? Yes we need the fun, we need it board games and food. Pot Luck? PASSES

Discussions. Meat pans breading. We had three meat pans and now we have 4 plus a griddle. We would like to reduce the pan amount to three, as it originally was. The wok has also had meat in. Its difficult but we need to remember to communicate. We would also like to get a separate scrubber and go back to three items. Proposing that we get a new scrubber and that we go back to the original number of pans. Proposal 3 and 1 griddle. We are going to get another meat only scrubby from maintenance and put a ring on it. If there's a ring on the scrubby its for the ring pans.

We are wating until next week. Tabling is good and Luke will propose three items back in use.

Discussion. Care and Cleanliness of cast iron – so do not use soap or metal scrubbers. Oil the pans and re season them by putting them in the oven (I am not sure of the exact time/heat) If they have meat juice all over them. Levels of cleanliness are important. If there is identifiable dirt, the pan is not clean. If you don't want to eat out of it then its not clean. Pans are meant to be shiny and oily but not with food particles.

Work Parties. Apologies form Zoe she's been super swamped! Work Party hours are 10 hours given to our community, it's a bit flexible but I think we can do it. So talk to Zoe, Luke has a ton of projects in mind. Jeff proposes that we report to Job cord what they did, lasting improvement to house or helping out in the wider community.

Week 9 notes.

Check in: Quote by yeats midnight oil DW

Proposals MEAT PANS

1 gribble, 1 12 inch, 1 10 deep, 1 8 deep

Luke Volunteered. Safia put herself up to do it if Luke can't take on the task.

CONSENT

Open House:

Having people over to introduce them to the house and let them know all about us. The money comes out of the membership budget for food, coop funds cannot go for booze but we can approve house money for it, food, discretionary, throwing in. CONSENT

Miles' Parents:

The end of spring break for the first week of the quarter maybe for a week. We should offer them the guest room...Instating 'one of us' principle.

Beer Pong, 2nd or 3rd of April.

Doodles, we're letting ourselves down on the beer pong front. For whoever doesn't go to westco? Jeff will organise everything. Beer pong on Friday 9th of april is the decision...it takes a while. Whatever you want to put in your glass is fine. You can only invite your best friend or significant others, no other coopers (unless your dating them or there your bessies).

DISCUSSION

New Compost Bin. It would be nice to have a sturdy new bin. We seem in agreement that it would be good to have one but good to fix one. It should be re purposed or fixed. Its leaky and gross, touching its gross bits makes it suck. We have to wait 24 hours before we pop it on the board so we're looking forward to next week for a nice compost bin juice related discussion.
